

Nanon Morsink

Países Bajos, 1964

Nanon Morsink es una artista de técnicas mixtas afincada en Andalucía, España, cuya obra se ha expuesto internacionalmente en toda Europa y fuera de ella. Graduada por la Academia de Arte de Enschede (AKI/ArtEZ) en los Países Bajos, donde se especializó en Arte Gráfico, lleva décadas perfeccionando un enfoque multidisciplinar que combina elementos del arte de la fibra, la escultura, la pintura y la instalación.

Desde que comenzó su carrera en los años 90, Morsink ha participado en una impresionante variedad de exposiciones individuales y colectivas, ferias de arte y bienales, mostrando su obra desde Madrid a Chicago, y desde Ucrania a Italia. Sus piezas reflejan a menudo una profunda conexión con la naturaleza, las emociones humanas y los temas sociopolíticos, explorando las intersecciones entre lo orgánico y lo industrial, lo personal y lo colectivo.

Viviendo y trabajando en España desde 2017, Morsink ha seguido evolucionando artísticamente, integrando elementos de paisajes y cultura mediterráneos en su práctica. Esta fase reciente de su carrera la ha visto exponer ampliamente en España, incluyendo notables exposiciones individuales en la Galería Isolina Arbulu de Marbella y la participación en ferias de arte clave como ESTAMPA y HeartExpo. Su trabajo también ha sido presentado en la prestigiosa Biennale de Internazionale di Fiber Art Contemporanea en Italia, consolidando aún más su reputación en la escena del arte contemporáneo de la fibra.

Además de su prolífico historial de exposiciones, Morsink ha aceptado numerosos encargos de arte público, entre los que destacan la creación de una estatua al aire libre para el municipio de Hengelo y el diseño de obras para espacios médicos y veterinarios en los Países Bajos.

Su compromiso con las artes va más allá de la creación, ya que ha formado parte del Comité de Arte de la ciudad de Hengelo, donde participó en el desarrollo de proyectos de arte público, como la obra conmemorativa de la iniciativa de recuerdo «Menthol».

Con una carrera de más de tres décadas, Nanon Morsink sigue superando los límites del arte de técnica mixta, mezclando textura, color y forma para crear obras que invitan a la reflexión y que atraen al espectador tanto estética como emocionalmente.
